

You see the new kid sitting alone at lunch. How could you put others first?

You're waiting for the bus and you see another kid who's cold. How could you put others first?

Your friend wants to play one game, but you want to play another. How could you put others first?

Your little brother asks to play with your favorite toy. How could you put others first?

When your mom comes home from work, she's really tired, but there's a lot to do around the house. How could you put others first?

Your friend is sick and has missed a few days of school. How could you put others first?

You're reading a book when you see your dad washing the car. How could you put others first?

You're at the store and you see someone struggling to open the door. How could you put others first?

NOTE: Feel free to add additional scenarios that are relevant to your kids. Keep them as generic as possible so that kids can "fill in the blanks" with their own experiences.
